Excerpt: .closed, on Friday morning, it was joyfully told, God is here by his Spirit! Forty-one were added to the church in Durham the following year. Similar blessed results followed the meeting of the Association at Rindge, in 1827; at which time, says the Report, It is but just to mention that one measure, greatly conducive to revivals in this State, is the manner in which the religious anniversaries are conducted. 1 Understood to be Mr. Francis Danforth, a member of Dartmouth College; afterward, 1823, the worthy pastor, eight years, of the church in Greenfield; dismissed, and settled 1831 in Winchester; afterward settled a year in Hadley, Mass., and died in Clarence, N. Y., 1844, aged 51. 2 Rev. Federal Burt was so named by his father from the coincidence of his birth, March 4, 1789, with the organization of the United States government under the present Constitution, and the inauguration of President Washington. He died after a pastorate of eleven years, at Durham, February 9, 1828, aged 39. At this period it was usual in our ministerial associations, in churches on the Sabbath, even in our families and closets, to make the General Association a subject of special prayer, that God would bless the annual meeting with his presence; above all, that a revival of religion might follow it. Ministers and Christians came to regard the anniversary as the banquet of our Zion; and, like the ancient tribes going up to Jerusalem, they flocked...
