We have included so much of the General Corporation Laws as have any application, the statutes relating to mines and mining, those regulating oil and gas wells, the act governing issuance and sales of corporate stock, commonly known as the Blue Sky Law, and a concise summary of the rulings of the appellate courts of the State on mineral rights in land, their ownership acquisition and transfer. Large sums of money are being invested in these interests by men who have had little opportunity to learn the law governing the rights and contracts with which they are dealing. Lawyers called upon to advise them sometimes find themselves entering upon a new field, and compelled to search through many volumes of statutes and reports for an answer to the questions asked them. Even those who have made special study of the subject may welcome a manual like the present, which brings into brief compass the information required. We have sought to bring this presentation of the subject up to date, by including important statutes enacted by the present Legislature (the 34th) and recent...
