Annick Press. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, My Friend Mei Jing, Anna McQuinn, Ben Frey, Irvin Cheung, Different cultures. Best friends. Ever since Mei Jing came to Monifa's school they've been best friends. They're both artistic and like to create wild designs together. They love to play at each other's houses; at Monifa's they make a tent out of her mother's African blanket, and at Mei Jing's they play with her new puppy and dream of having a veterinary clinic when they grow up. On one visit to Mei Jing's, Monifa notices that Mei Jing's grandma spends a lot of time there. She speaks Chinese and calls her granddaughter Mui Mui. Mei Jing's father shows Monifa how to use chopsticks, and Monifa tries food she's never eaten before. Luckily they don't serve chicken's feet! At Chinese New Year the girls learn the Dragon Dance, and when Mei Jing's parents give Monifa a red envelope, she's surprised to discover it has real money in it! Like "My Friend Jamal," My Friend Mei Jing is a poignant story that demonstrates how friendship is the strongest bond among kids living in a diverse community.
