The oldest extant MS. belongs to the 12th century. The latest and most critical edition (Welsh and English) is that published in 1841 by the record commission, and edited by Aneurin Owen, son of Dr. Owen Pughe. Another work, entitled 1ie Wisdom of Cadog tie Wise (a collection of proverbs pretending to be bya St. Cadog, who flourished in the 6th c, and was a friend of Taliesiu), is of such doubtful authenticity that its claim can only be noticed in our sketch. Second Period, 1066-1536. --A few years after the date of the Norman conquest, anew spirit was imported into Welsh poetry by the influence of Gruffydd ab Cynan, prince of North Wales, and Khys ab Tewdwr, prince of South Wales, particularly of the former. Gruffydd had been born during his fathers exile in Ireland, and was brought up in that country, where he appears...
