[...]and farther in new wilfulness of grove and garden, until at last the craggy mountains of the Simmenthal rise out of it, sharp into the rolling of the southern clouds. [11] Almost the only pleasure I have, myself, in rereading my old books, is my sense of having at least done justice to the pine. Compare the passage in this book, No. 47. 19.[12] Although there are few districts of Northern Europe, however apparently dull or tame, in which I cannot find pleasure; though the[.].
