J Henry Enterprise, Inc, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . ENDOSYM-The Plantation is book two of a six series science fiction/fantasy thriller. The Endosym series takes place throughout a 30-year period and focuses on the Martin family who must battle endosyms-demonic possessed humans bent on enslaving mankind. In book one Hank Martin, his wife Lindsey and their teenage son Tim arrives in Liberia, West Africa where Hank will be the Defense Attaché to the American Embassy. What begins as the ideal tour for the Martins escalates into sheer terror when an incident from Hank's past haunts his dreams and becomes a reality. Hank is forced to choose between the interests of the United States as it negotiates for the vast oil reserves hidden beneath the Saint Paul River Delta and the destruction of an evil that permeates the Government of Liberia to the very doors of the President's office. This is a battle that, if Hank does not win, will cost him far more than his career; it will cost him the sacrifice of his son to the ENDOSYM-a creature that has hidden in the jungles of Liberia for centuries. Now in Book Two, when Doctor George Nah Sarday, the leader of the new age cult Dacari Muomba, purchased the old Johnson Plantation in Johnsonville, Virginia as the site for the School for West African Spiritual Studies, Chief of Police Brian Bishop had little reason to be concerned. Little did he realize that it was far more than just another fake religion bilking money from its followers; The School was hiding an evil whose existence would threaten not only the City of Johnsonville but also the very existence of the human race. With...
