Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Asepsis Secundum Artem: The Practical Application of the Art of Asepsis to the Preparation of Surgical Dressings The following pages give in brief the methods by which surgical dressings are prepared in our laboratories. These methods afford striking evidence of the advancement of the surgical art as well as illustrate the great progress that has been made in the technical production of dressing materials suited to the requirements of surgical practice. The processes here outlined are the practical application of scientific knowledge, the outcome of the modifications and amplifications of procedures that have been brought about in the evolution of surgery. Ten years ago, entering the field as pioneer manufacturers of antiseptic dressing materials we stated that the importance of reliable dressings cannot be overestimated, without these all the skill of the surgeon is wasted. Time has emphasized the imperative necessity and supreme importance of perfect surgical dressings. From the beginning of our experience to the present time, we have held in view one single purpose - the preparation of dressing materials that shall meet...
