Personal Finance for Professionals

By Susan A Berson

American Bar Association, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. As a young professional, you probably face an interesting set of financial challenges. You now earn maybe for the first time a good salary, but you also face substantial debts and obligations like rent, car payments, and student loan payments for the first time, too. On top of that, you know you should probably start putting money aside for retirement . . . plus, you've heard you should have a rainy day fund, in case something goes wrong at work and one day you'll want to start a family, shouldn't you start preparing for that, too? Suddenly, that new salary doesn't seem so high anymore. Luckily, Susan Berson will help you sort through all these complex issues and find solid, long-term solutions that make best use of your money. Personal Finance for Professionals explains the basics of budgeting, living debt-free, dealing with student loan debt, how to use credit to your advantage, how to calculate how much rent or mortgage payment you can afford, the ins and outs of insurance, the basics of investing, paying taxes...

Reviews

It is an awesome publication which I actually have ever read through. It had been written really properly and valuable. I found out this book from my I and dad recommended this pdf to discover.

-- Doyle Schmeler

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that I am sure that I will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
