Simon & Schuster. 1 Paperback(s), 2010. soft. Book Condition: New. (Edgar Award Nominee for Best First Novel) Harry Bloch is a struggling writer who pumps out pulpy serial novels from vampire books to detective stories under various pseudonyms. But in David Gordon's debut novel, Bloch's life begins to imitate his fiction when he agrees to ghostwrite the memoir of Darian Clay, New York City's infamous Photo Killer. Soon, three young women are murdered in the Photo Killer's gruesome signature style, and Bloch must play detective as he struggles to avoid becoming the killer's next victim."David Gordon writes with style, bite, suspense, humor, and heart. Remember his name. [This book] is great fun to read and the beginning of a noteworthy career."David Ebershoff "Funny, with a satirical edge, and unlike some literary authors who play with genre, Gordon knows how to write a potboiler."LATimes 335.
