The morning s meeting was announced to commence at half-past ten o clock. By the specified time nearly the whole of the morning s congregation had assembled; and although it was not so large as that of the afternoon, the Assembly Room of the Free Trade Hall was on this occasion tolerably well filled with Latter-day Saints. It was evident that, with scarcely an exception, those preaent were members of the Church, and on their countenances vividly appeared a lively spirit. It was also evident, from the general feelings and signs of the meeting, that the Saints were in expectation of a treat, and disposed to believe that if the good time coming was not actually present, at least one of the good times had come to represent it at the Manchester Pastorate Conference. The morning service opened with the very appropriate hymn beginning with-- Lift up your heads, ye scattered Saints; Redemption draweth nigh. Elder Milo Antjris then offered up one of those thoroughly Mormon and characteristic prayers which are as peculiar as the religion of the Saints itself, and i for simplicity, power, and condensed fulness, have led me to class them with that wonder of prayers--the Lord s prayer. After the prayer, the choir, accompanied by the congregation, sang-- The morning breaks, the shadows flee; Lo! Zion s standard is unfurled. This hymn was sung with considerable spirit and appreciation, as though the sentiments of the poet were brought home, and...
