The saga which stretches across the ages, is about someone whos more than a man. Forced early in life to flee persecution, Viator is constantly haunted by the unknown. Loneliness and fear are his only companions until meeting a mentor, a monk in a small monastery who befriends and teaches him to read. And to question what is truth, and what is acknowledged as true. After years of studying, he finds troubling clues to his ancestry and unanswerable questions about his destiny. He ventures from the only security he has ever known into the tangle of social order. The road he travels has many turns and leads to a unique membership in a group that meets at The Cat and the Rat in Paris. Here he meets Monique and falls in love, but she is snatched from his grasp much too soon. He narrowly escapes death in on an ocean voyage before reaching the Bowery in New York. His education is expanded when he meets a Hot Corn Girl, who introduces him to the evils of crime. Again and again he is forced to flee to survive. Woven into this tale of unrequited love, betrayal, and adventure is a mans search for understanding. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
