Excerpt: . . . adjudication phase include tasks that occur before adjudicators actually receive the investigative reports from OPM. More recently, OMBs February 2007 report to Congress noted that its timeliness statistics do not include the time to . . . hand-off investigation files to the adjudicative agency and estimated this handling and mailing time at up to 15 days. Not counting all days for closed pending cases. OPMs May 2006 testimony before Congress did not indicate whether the timeliness statistics on complete investigations included a type of incomplete investigation that OPM sometimes treats as being complete. In our February 2004 report, we noted that OPMs issuance of closed pending investigations - investigative reports sent to adjudication facilities without one or more types of source data required by the federal investigative standards - causes ambiguity in defining and accurately estimating the backlog of overdue investigations. In our February 2004 report, we also noted that cases that are closed pending the provision of additional information should continue to be tracked separately in the investigation phase of the clearance...
